

Master of Arts in Reading with an Emphasis in Elementary Education

BE A LEADER IN LITERACY

Build and direct study methods, strategies and instruction for classrooms and schools through a Master of Arts in Reading with an Emphasis in Elementary Education at Grand Canyon University.

The reading program provides the application of theory and practice to effectively deliver curriculum, instruction and assessment while providing corrective reading strategies. It further explores reading deficiencies and diagnosis of K-8 students through a variety of communication tactics and assessments while seeking possible solutions toward improving classroom results.

WHY GCU?

- 32 credits; approximately 17 months to completion
- More than 18,000 new instructional coordinator jobs expected by 2022.
- Aligns with International Reading Association standards, a global network committed to literacy.
- 145 hours of field experience including 75-hour reading practicum project

GRAND CANYON
UNIVERSITY™

For more information, please contact your local university representative:

Wade Wedow
303-638-5986 | wade.wedow@gcu.edu