

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN SPECIAL EDUCATION (IR/NON IR)

Busy professionals: GCU online programs enable you to reach your educational goals.

Expand your career and expertise with the Master of Education in Special Education program at Grand Canyon University. The convenient online cohort program equips graduates with specialized training in classroom management, diagnosis, assessment, teaching strategies and educational implications unique to students with disabilities and impairments. Bring new and exciting practices to your classroom or district and help shape the future of special education.

Program Details

- Tuition $395 per credit
- One class at-a-time format
- TEACH Grant eligible for qualified candidates
- 20% cohort tuition scholarship
- Program leads to initial teacher licensure

Next cohort starts June 30th, 2016.

Admission is limited, classes starting soon!

Call to schedule your academic and financial aid evaluation today:

GRAND CANYON
UNIVERSITY™

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Wade Wedow

University Development Representative

303-638-5986 | wade.wedow@gcu.edu