

Teach a Language and Open a New World with your M.Ed. TESOL degree.

Our CLAD transfer friendly program allows you to be a student for less time so you can impact today's global classrooms sooner.

Teach others and explore the world with a Teaching English to Students of Other Languages (TESOL) master's degree at Grand Canyon University.

Expand your horizons; share your mastery of the English language, embrace creativity and use technology toward helping children or adults locally and globally.

With nearly 7,000 jobs teaching English to high school diploma-equivalency students and adults expected to be available by 2022, our 34-credit program features an exploration of English and teaching development subjects:

- Foundations of instruction for English Language Learners
- Methods of teaching English and grammar to speakers of other languages
- English linguistics
- Teaching in a pluralistic society
- Curriculum development and assessment.

Grand Canyon University stands apart from other online education institutions because we are backed by the 60-year history of our main campus. Our online classes allow students to study at the times that work for their schedule while still enjoying a close connection with their classmates and instructor via online discussions and resources. Courses are taught by dedicated full-time faculty members and fully trained adjunct instructors.

GCU OFFERS SEVERAL ADVANTAGES TO ITS COHORT PROGRAMS:

- National Cohorts with a reduced tuition rate as low as $390/per credit hour
- CLAD transfer-friendly
- Complete your degree in approximately 13 months with Crosscultural, Language and Academic Development (CLAD) certification

For more information or to get started today please contact:

Wade Wedow
(303) 638-5986
wade.wedow@gcu.edu