Dedicated English Language Development (ELD) Providers

(Literacy, English Language Arts, Special Education, Elementary Classroom Teachers and Interventionists)

The employee must successfully complete 3 graduate level courses through Regis University at APS expense:

- Linguistics I: Language Acquisition
- Assessment for Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Education
- Teaching Strategies for Cult. and Ling. Diverse Educators
- To view the summer 2017 REGIS University

Content Area Teachers

(Secondary Math, Science, Social Studies, Drama, World Languages, Business, OR PE, Art, Music at any level)

If you completed the Strategies course through Regis University or University of Colorado at Denver (or an equivalent), then the LDE condition of employment requirement has been met.

If the Strategies course has not been completed, then please watch for updates for new requirements regarding the 2017-2018 school year which will posted shortly on this web site.

Special Service Providers

(SSP License holders* – SLP, OT, PT, Counselors, SSW, Psychologists, Orientation and Mobility Specialists)

If one or more of the graduate level LDE courses have been completed, this requirement has been met.

If no graduate level LDE courses have been completed, then the employee must successfully complete:

- ECallms Module (APS sponsored, 6-week online learning module)

Nurses and Audiologists are exempt from the LDE condition of employment requirement.*
